In Memoriam

RONALD J. GORDON

In fond memory of a fellow student, Ronald J. Gordon, who will always remain in our hearts.

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
Thou maddest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him; thou art just.

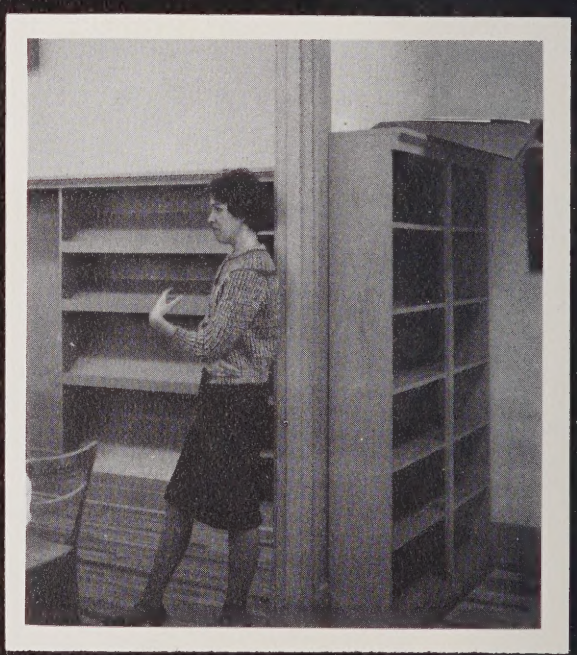
—Tennyson
In Memoriam

Dedication

CAROLYN HARRISS

We dedicate the 1963 REBEL to a devoted teacher who has regained the lost key of learning, and opened with it forgotten doors in English, history, sociology and dramatics. Our Senior Advisor, Miss Carolyn Harriss has helped us in decisive times and distressing years.

With deep sincerity and admiration of an excellent teacher and better friend, we dedicate the 1963 REBEL.



"The hand is the mind's vassal."

PINEHURST CITY SCHOOLS
LEWIS S. CANNON, SUPERINTENDENT
PINEHURST, NORTH CAROLINA

Dear Students:

The privilege of participating in the development of your early years has been a source of great personal blessing and delight.

There is a divine principle and plan for each of you. Your education gives you the responsibility for a higher manner of thinking, a reason for seeking the depth of Truth, and the demand to make a good contribution to this World.

From the wisdom gained through years of study and observation, I urge you to not waste your life in purposeless drifting, but rather to get the right kind of advice from the right source, then commit your life-- make something worthwhile of it. Select your job, prepare for it, and the sky is the limit. You, yourself, set the limitations.

You will do well to remember that Success is not measured in 'how much money', but 'how much happiness' is achieved by using your skills and knowledge to give needed assistance to your fellow-men.

I am thankful for your friendship.

Sincerely,

Lewis S. Cannon, Superintendent
